The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We like the story of the man who was sitting in his beat-up 1940 jalopy who asked the following question of another man who drove up alongside of him in a 1956 Cadillac. "Well stupid, what question did you miss?"

—ML—

Speaking of cars we've read the warning about piling junk above the rear seat of one's car, but every trip we take we violate this safety rule.

Last week we were driving along at a pretty fair clip on a paved road in Mexico—suddenly we came onto a large break in the asphalt. We managed to slow down in time to avoid a broken spring but we were clobbered on the back of the head with a bag of oranges. We also spent a full five minutes clearing the remains of our peanut butter sandwiches from our windshield.

—ML—

We're trying to be funny of course, but believe me, we're going to be mighty careful what we put on that rear shelf in the future.

—ML—

Now with the flu season upon us again, we are reminded of the cartoon which shows the little guy in the doctor's office telling the nurse, "No, I don't feel listless, if I felt that good I wouldn't be here."

—ML—

Which leads us to this sage observation: Surely the present shortage of nurses will be eliminated in a couple of years, unless all those sweet young things who were putting themselves through nurses' training by selling magazine subscriptions, flunk. We know of at least six who called on us this year, most of them only needed 50 points. Two years ago, the same (at least they used the same approach) sweet young things were going to become airplane pilots.

Our only hope is that next year they don't get the idea of putting themselves through salesmanship school. We just can't hardly take no more magazines.

—ML—

We've sure got to hand it to those youngsters who passed their Hunters' Safety Course. Official state figures show their accident record to be 20 times better than those who didn't take the course.

Now if the state could follow up by giving just a little money for shooting grounds, targets, etc. the program could be carried through to a point where a lifelong hobby could be developed for all youngsters who showed a real interest. We'd like to bet that it would pay off eventually in conservation of our natural resources, also. Of course, politically speaking, it's not as spectacular as a million dollar youth center, but properly developed it has real merit.

Time Growing Short For 'Adopting' Carole

Drawing for Christmas Carole, the money doll to be given away by the Business Women's League, will be December 22. The doll is dressed in bills of various denominations totaling one hundred dollars plus an undisclosed amount in the small purse of the doll's costume.

Mrs. James Oyler, ticket chairman of the project, gave a progress report at a dinner meeting last week.

Reports included the Christmas party plans for the luncheon meeting December 15. Mrs. Grant Hadley is social chairman. Mrs. Calvin Nichell is president of the organization.

Men's Club to Elect New Officers

Lemon Grove Men's Club heard Les Freeman, city clerk of La Mesa, tell of the advantages of a corporate community. He recommended that Lemon Grove annex to a city already formed rather than undergo the cost of establishing a new one.

Because of Freeman's interesting and informational attitude he has been invited back for the December 16 meeting.

This Friday, members of the irrigation district board will explain to the Men's Club how the January bond issue for more than $5 million can be passed without increased cost to present taxpayers.

An election will be held also, according to Bert Betts, present club president. A president, three vice presidents and a secretary will be elected Friday.

The club meets Fridays at Michael's and all men are invited. The club discusses community matters.

SANTA INVADES LEMON GROVE STORES

If it's Christmas shopping you have in mind—and who hasn't at this time of the year—you can find what you're looking for, and doubtless something you had not thought of, right here in Lemon Grove, where there is free parking and no one cent tax added to the present sales tax. The nice thing about Lemon Grove's free parking is that you don't have to hunt for a place to leave your car while you shop, for with two lines of parking on both sides of Broadway, plus the several parking lots provided by individual stores, shoppers do not have to walk more than a few feet to reach their favorite stores.

Most stores in Lemon Grove are already staying open every night until 9 p.m. It was originally planned that this part of the operation should start December 12, but the press of business with so many shoppers from here and the surrounding communities wanting to accommodate Santa Claus earlier, it became necessary for the stores to move up their "open hour" dates.

The windows of the stores in the business section, all four streets and east and west Broadway, make this reporter feel as though he had wandered into the shopping center of a big city. The window-dressers certainly know their stuff, and do it.

Every conceivable article, both useful and ornamental, is available.

The windows of the stores specializing in women's wear are particularly attractive. Evelyn Wigton has seven mannikins in the windows, each dressed in different costume, and we couldn't decide which we liked best, though we did kinda like the redhead in a quilted white dressing gown. She is in the east corner.

The store itself was so inviting that we went in and chatted with Mrs. Cutbirth, complimented her on the variety of offerings for the ladies, and got out without succumbing to the wiles of the goods displayed. (Payday is Friday.)

Lane's Men's Shop had a mannikin sitting in a chair in pajamas and bathrobe, looking comfortable, with various articles of men's wear displayed beside him.

The Highlander has an interesting show window, with the latest in suits on the models, which have that "junior executive look" that is so much admired.

Walters' Jewelry Store has a gadget that revolves and shows four diamond rings.

Morrison-Adams, Lemon Grove's newest jewelers, has two windows stacked deep with diamonds and other jewels, plus watches and dinnerware and even tableware.

The hardware stores, not to be outdone, have put on their Christmas dress. At Lemon Grove Hardware are windows loaded with things to give to "him" while at Brouillard's on Broadway, are displays of things for "him, home and her."

McMahan's, with huge Santa Claus and holiday paintings on their windows, lend to the spirit of Christmas as the visitor approaches the center district.

The markets too, have put on the holiday air. The Shopping Center boasts a Yuletide air while Mayfair, with its holiday trimmings aglow, have arranged new open hours for its meat department to help the holiday shopper, will be open nightly till 9 p.m. and all day Sunday until 7 p.m.

Santa Claus will be present in person each Friday evening until Christmas at Earl Brandon's Toyland and Sporting Goods at 7368 Broadway.

Brandon's is open every evening and offers useful articles for Mum and Pop and the youngsters. A fine line of bicycles, at unusually low prices, the young saleslady told me, awaits your selection. You should bring your boy along to pick his choice, and a Santa Claus mailbox is available just outside the store. Earl will furnish stationery if it is needed for a Santa Claus letter.

Earl told us of his having operated until a year ago the factory making Palo Verde Tackle and Archery. He sold the factory, which was moved east, and next Spring Brandon will start another factory for making tackle and archery goods.

The factory will employ from eight to ten workers, and the products will be sold all over the world.

P. S. If Santa brings your boy or girl a bike, make a note of the serial number and where you can find it. This in case the bike is stolen, makes it easier for the police to recover it. This suggestion was made by the deputy sheriff. Which reminds me that there are now three bicycles unclaimed at the sheriff's office in the Justice Court building. How a boy can lose his bike and not go to the officers is beyond me, but some of 'em fail to go to the authorities.

So, if you want to put in a pleasant two hours window shopping, as we did, or if you are still undecided as to the gifts you will buy, go down to the Shopping Center in Lemon Grove and browse around. You will get better service and better treatment than in bigger stores in San Diego.

P. S. S.—Almost forgot to tell y'all about Style Shop windows. They have mannikins in attractive dresses and accessories. A very pleasing display.—D. H.

Rained-Out Toyland Parade to Be Held Sunday

The 20 division Toyland Parade in North Park has been rescheduled for Sunday after a losing battle with the elements last week.

Amout 200 entries have announced their intention to compete. This comprises about 90% of the original total. Few entries were damaged by the all day rain.

Lemon Grove elements of the parade will be on hand, as previously scheduled.

The parade starts at 1:30 p.m. from 33rd Street along University to Arizona.

Local Publisher Heads San Diego Newspaper Unit

The San Diego Unit of the California Newspaper Publishers Association last week named Max Goodwin its president. Mrs. Grandier Arbuckle, associate publisher of the Daily Transcript, was named secretary-treasurer.

Goodwin publishes the Lemon Grove Review and the Spring Valley Bulletin.

U. S. National Bank To Move to Bigger Building

C. ARNHOLT SMITH JR.

U. S. National Bank in Lemon Grove is going to have new and bigger quarters at a brand new address, it was announced this week by C. Arnholt Smith Jr., manager of the branch.

The new location is 7859 Broadway, adjacent Piggly Wiggly, directly across the street from Michael's.

Smith said remodeling of the branch's new location next to Piggly Wiggly will be quite extensive and on a par with outfitting the premises where bank clients will find improved and more numerous facilities. Total cost will be approximately $50,000 according to Smith.

The branch will have a total area of 1,200 square feet and Smith said that among the new facilities there will be a night depository and safety deposit boxes.

Additional tellers' windows also will be available and the branch staff will be increased to cope with the branch expansion, Smith pointed out.

Smith said the United States National Bank and he as Lemon Grove branch manager highly appreciate the way residents of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area have steadily increased their banking at the Lemon Grove branch.

"At our new location," he said, "we will be even better situated from all standpoints to serve our clientele.

"We believe that banking should be a pleasant and friendly business. Our clients will find this true more than ever when our branch is moved to its new, larger location. The bank will be in the center of the community within easy access from everywhere in the area."

The Lemon Grove branch is one of three branches the bank has in the San Diego area. Other branches are on El Cajon Blvd. and in Pacific Beach. Main offices are at Broadway and Second Ave.

Furniture Man on 'Critical' List Following Plane Crash

Jack McMahan, operator of nine furniture stores in Southern California, who was pilot of a plane which crashed in Cajon Pass last week on a trip to Las Vegas, is listed as "still critical" at the St. Bernardino Hospital.

With McMahan were El Cajon city attorney Don Alexander Stewart, 41, and John H. Deaton, 40, of a San Diego investment firm, who perished in the crash.

McMahan, an experienced pilot, suffered fractures of his skull, arm and leg. He was observed by road workers attempting to make a 360 degree turn in Cajon Pass 23 miles northeast of San Bernardino.

With him at the hospital are his wife, and his son Bruce. Other children are Nancy, Sandra and Susan.

10-28c Month Lower Rate Seen for Area As Commission Gets Gasco Report

A report has been tendered the state public utilities commission by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company covering the electric rates in unincorporated areas. Temporarily, at least, rates are broken down into two sections, one rate being for incorporated areas, and a higher rate for unincorporated areas.

The commission will study the report and set another hearing, the date of which is to be announced later.

In the SDG&E report the two rating districts—incorporated and unincorporated—will be continued, but these will be subdivided into three zones each.

In Zone A, incorporated, will be San Diego, La Mesa, Chula Vista, National City and Coronado; Zone B: Oceanside, El Cajon and Escondido; Zone C: Carlsbad and San Clemente.

In Zone D, unincorporated, will be South Laguna, Lincoln Acres, Fallbrook, Imperial Beach-Palm City, Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, San Ysidro, Lakeside, Castle Park-Harborside, Ramona; Zone E: Vista, Del Mar, Leucadia, Encinitas, Cardiff, Solana Beach, San Juan Capistrano; Zone F: the balance of unincorporated areas.

In the hypothetical example of zone rates, residential bills in Zone A might be 4 cents a month lower, in Zone B increased from 5 to 15 cents a month, and in Zone C might be 10 to 50 cents greater. Zone D electric customers might experience a 10 to 22 cents per month decrease in their bills, those in Zone E no change, and those in Zone F a 10 to 28 cents per month increase.

Kefauver to Address Demos Tuesday

Dick Thompson of Lemon Grove is area chairman for the open meeting to be addressed by U. S. Sen. Estes Kefauver at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 13 at Craftsmen's Hall, 3909 Centre Street, San Diego.

The meeting is open to all, without charge. There will be no donations asked.

Every Democratic organization in San Diego County, including the Homeland Democratic Club, is sponsoring the meeting.

General chairmen of the affair are George Cheny, president of the San Diego Men's Democratic Club, and G. K. Williams, Coronado Journal publisher and a vice chairman of the California Democratic Central Committee.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Once a month for the past four months I have had occasion to bring my two youngsters to the Well-Baby Clinic at the Youth Center. On all these occasions I was dismayed at the dirty, shabby appearance of our one community provision for our youth. The curtains are dusty and faded and the furniture is in need of repair or replacement. The dirtiness of the center was appalling. The shabbiness can be explained away by community disinterest, but aren't the rental fees large enough to cover cleaning?

I realize that the center is used by many groups, rent free, so the cleaning would have to be paid from the few that do pay. Something surely must be done though, because the condition of the kitchen and rest rooms alone are enough to drive away any paying prospects.

On Well-Baby Clinic day, the room is crowded with mothers and their small children. These small children (as small children do) use sanitation facilities at the center that are disgustingly dirty.

The PTA volunteers have tried their best to clean them up, but their time is donated for the clinic work, not cleaning duty. Because of this, the PTAs in this area have donated five dollars apiece for some janitorial service just prior to clinic day.

Because the center really needs refurbishing before many profitable rentals will be gotten, it seems imperative some service organization take this as a project.

The beautifying our our railroad right of way by the B.W.L. might serve as an example to the community of what can be done.

Sincerely yours
Mrs. Lysette Stumbaugh
8371 Adams St

Dear Mrs. Stumbaugh:

The Community Center is supposed to be what its name implies. I recall how the opponents of incorporation pointed to it with pride and said that is what can be accomplished without forming a local government. They also said sidewalks and curbs could be obtained also by community cooperation.

The control board has worked very hard at trying to keep the place clean and attractive. They face a terrific problem. You simply can't operate any project without money and the contributions made by some local citizens are, in effect, a tax burden which should be shared by all. We need many services here, including the Community Center. We need local autonomy for providing these services.

I am supplying a copy of your letter to the newly formed Junior

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

It looks as though the Pearce Subdivision project is going to get rolling, finally.

This project will add to Lemon Grove's rapidly growing population-line another 80 or so houses in the 14 thousand dollar class.

Pearce Manor is a 20 acre area lying east of Imperial bounded roughly by the fire department on the north, education center on the east, St. Philip's Church on the south, and the railroad tracks on the west.

I am particularly gratified that the project is getting under way because it shows what can be done via cooperation in a situation which seemed almost hopeless a few months before.

The homes will be built by Rex Foster, a contractor of considerable reputation, he having gained much of his reputation building local schools. He is building them under the aegis of the Tremont Construction Co. and the pilot house will be ready for show in about 30 days, according to Foster.

When the project was first plotted, almost two years ago, it had a bad start. The developers faced a huge task of draining out the center section of the land. Story had it that springs underran the land and that it could never be dried out enough to build on. But they put in some ditches and shoved the earth back and forth with a "cat" until it was dry.

The ditches unfortunately picked up considerable seepage from some nearby septic tanks and flowed to a low point and formed a pool.

Neighbors complained fiercely, and when the pool wasn't filled in, tempers flared. County officials wanted huge drainage tile set in to handle present and future seepage and the developers refused. Then financing became unavailable.

About the same time community leaders asked a right-of-way through one corner of the tract to tie it to a planned extension of Skyline Drive to Kempf Street. This, too, was rejected and on this blue note the project bogged down.

Recently, when announcement was made that the project would get under way again, it was discovered that the big drainage tile was being set in place; that a plan for the connecting road was being marked in; that a new sewer line on one side of the project had carried away considerable seepage and that public enthusiasm for the project was heightened to the point, that barring a catastrophe, it will now be successfully completed.

By taking a second look at their plans the developers found they could concede area for the roadway and still have as many lots as they originally planned.

They discovered too, that by doing the things required by regulation, they could hope for a better quality home, a little better resident, and certainly a better return on their investment.

The interesting part of all this is that the original developers, Clay Young and Gene Shepherd, are only doing what was asked of them in the first place—proving once again that it pays to subscribe to the normal rules and regulations by which all of us must abide.

If there be a moral here it must be that there is a profit in following the rules set out to benefit the most, rather than the few.

Age No Barrier To Success Proves Mama Weiss

A well-known product has invaded the local markets and its success goes to prove that all it takes to be a success is to reach your middle age and have a good cooking sense.

The product is Mama Weiss' salad dressing and sauce and the producer is Mama Weiss, herself, a middle aged Los Angeles woman who immigrated to this country from Hungary 45 years ago and brought her cooking talents with her.

She had only $13 to her name when she docked but she took a job cooking for a wealthy Long Island family. She soon gained fame with her seasoning ability, eventually became recognized as one of the country's leading cuisine authorities and soon became one of Hollywood's best-loved personalities.

Between the production of her salad dressings and sauces in the Mama Weiss kitchens, and her regular tv appearances, Mama Weiss has built a thriving business for herself and family. Her products are available locally in Mayfair Markets.

WESLEYAN METHODISTS MEMBERSHIP NOW 600

The Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church in Monterey Heights recently observed Wesleyan Founders' Week. Dr. O. G. Wilson, editor of Wesleyan Methodist publications, came from Syracuse, N. Y., to officiate at the important services of the week.

Under the outstanding leadership of the pastor, Rev. Orval C. Butcher, the capable assistance of the minister of youth, Jerry O'Brien, and the wholehearted cooperation of the people of Lomita Village and Monterey Heights, the church has developed into a major factor in the development of this community. From a Sunday School of an enrollment of 177 on the opening day, July 11, 1954, it has grown to the present above 400 attendance. The auditorium seats 425. During the 16 months since its beginning, the people met the challenge of inadequate S. S. facilities by building with volunteer labor a ten-room S. S. unit. A beautiful $30,000.00 parsonage has just been completed in the same way. Landscaping is now in progress with ample parking space worked into the plans. The new church on Jamacha and Skyline Drive has become an integral part of this fast-growing community.

A Little Care May Avert a Christmas Tragedy Says Fire Chief

"Don't let fire mar your Christmas," pleads Lemon Grove Fire Chief Harold Hensley.

He listed seven precautions to be taken to help toward a safer holiday.

1) Some imported toys are being made of nitro cellulose plastic which ignite easily, burn intensely. They are particularly dangerous for small children.

2) Do not buy a dry Christmas tree. Check to make sure it is freshly cut; try the twigs and branches to see that they bend rather than break, and shake the tree. Falling needles indicate a dry and hazardous tree.

Your fire department will apply a fire-retardant at a small cost. Bring your tree to 7853 Central for this service.

3) Keep your tree in water until placed indoors, then make a fresh cut across the trunk, 45 degrees, place it in a container containing wet sand or water and keep it away from household heat sources.

4) Discard damaged sockets and replace frayed wire. Turn off the juice on lighted trees when retiring or leaving home. Never use candles for lighting trees.

5) Do not use untreated cotton or paper decorations. Do use non-combustible flame-proofed decoration.

6) Supply suitable containers for discarded wrappings and get them out of the house as soon as the gifts are unwrapped.

7) Trees should be discarded before they dry and become a serious fire menace to the home.

HOLIDAY PRESENTATION PLANNED BY BAPTIST CHURCH

Car Dealers Rough On Youngsters Says Teenage Editor

By BOB TURNBULL

"Snobbishness" seems to be the password around some of San Diego's supposed "top" new and used car lots.

Although most of the bigger brass that runs the organization are congenial and seem gregarious enough when they put their business foot forward, the "floor men," or the fellows that call themselves salesmen wouldn't allege themselves to even act halfway friendly to a teener or even to a person they think wouldn't be interested in buying a car.

Anyway that's the situation I've coped with whenever I've made my annual tour of the city's used car lots. I talk a lot, may as well 'fess that up, and in the course of some of my conversations with my compatriots, they, too, have complained that many used car salesmen treat the adolescent like dirt, or try to sell you a prehistoric junk-heap. I don't know what's behind some of the salesmen's crafty cerebral, but whether it's through a lack of trust or thinking the teenager will back down on his payments (even though he knows the parents are responsible) every person that seeks his wares should receive the same courteous treatment he would give to a demigod with a fist full of free money.

When San Diego Junior College was having its annual football Homecoming Game it was up to yours truly to seek out a new car lot. I was to inquire about the possibilities of them loaning our school the use of a couple of new convertibles so our queen candidates could enter the stadium in grand. This has been done several times in the past. I only hope the other people in the past didn't encounter the same "snobbishness" I did.

A new car lot on the corner of 15th Street in San Diego sure has a couple of "stinkers." Upon entering the establishment, a salesman saw the group of us head toward him, and turned the other way. I asked him if he could tell me where the promotion salesman was and he dryly answered "I wouldn't know." Simply "I wouldn't know" in three short, crisp "well-thought-out" words. I felt like saying %?!!%?!!! — but so much for that!

A 12th Street car lot made us wait nearly 30 minutes even though several of the fellows saw we were waiting to be helped. Finally in disgust we walked out.

Still another new car lot located in San Diego on Kettner Street has a salesman that answered "why" when we asked if we could see the vice president. The answer he got was that it was personal business. But the retort from him was really "polite," as he said "Well, I don't know if he's got the time to talk with you guys," giving us the feeling that since we didn't have suit on and didn't look old and important that we should "get out and stop annoying them."

All this may seem trivial to some people, but believe me the teenager doesn't like the way many used and new car dealers treat them. The above was just a small example of the attitude displayed by several salesmen in some of our town's friendly (?) and courteous (?) car lots.

To be honest with you the nicest and most congenial used car lot I've ever stepped foot on is right here in good ole L. G. They work with the young guy (and gal.)

Local People May View Military Academy Parade

Lemon Grove residents are invited to attend a full dress parade Sunday at the Brown Military Academy, 1800 Garnet Avenue, in Pacific Beach. A 40 piece military band, unit of the academy, will also be out in full uniform.

According to Major James Barham, director of admissions, the 100 voice Coronado Community Chorus will sing the "Messiah."

Parade starts at 2 p.m. and the chorus sings directly thereafter.

HEART ASSOCIATION WORKERS FETED

Area chairmen and workers of last February's Heart Fund Drive were guests at a dinner in the Heart Center at Sharp Hospital on Kearny Mesa last week. The dinner was given in recognition of the workers' efforts which made it possible for the San Diego County Heart Association to equip and maintain the Heart Center in the hospital.

Success Drive Total Reaches 23½ Per Cent

Lemon Grove's campaign in the United Success Drive this week reached total contributions of $3,352 for 23.5 per cent of its quota, according to Earl W. Smart Jr., community chairman.

Smart said that recent contributions received through the mail have helped boost the entire drive fund for all Red Feather services to $1,532,240 for 88.3 per cent of the need figure. Others who have not yet made their contributions are asked to mail them to the Community Chest, P. O. Box 2671, San Diego 12.

NO BUSINESS FOR MEETING OF ROLANDO PTA

Christmas will be the topic of interest at the Rolando Park PTA meeting December 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the school's auditorium at 6620 Marlowe Drive, San Diego. The business meeting will be omitted.

Jay Scott's choir will sing a selection of Christmas Carols while various classes dramatize the carol. The dramatizing is under the direction of Mrs. Letsinger with Mrs. Burgert assisting.

This program will be presented Dec. 13 at 10:30 a.m. and on Dec. 14 at 1:30 p.m. for the children and those parents who can't attend in the evening.

Directors of Irrigation District Have Executive Session

Four members of the board of directors of Helix Irrigation District met in regular session Nov. 30, and after considering 19 matters on the agenda, went into executive session, which means that all outsiders were "included out."

President of the board Rush Levy presided. Director Joe Levishow, foreman of present grand jury, was absent.

Items on the agenda were:

1. Minutes of Nov. 9 and 15 to be approved.

2. Warrants to be approved totaled $447.71.

3. Resolutions to be adopted authorizing execution of quitclaim deeds to five pieces of property and one right of way to S. D. Gas & Electric Co., over 50 foot strip of property in Lot 3, Blk. 36 of S Tract, Rho El Cajon (for $85).

4. Requests for large meters?

E. E. Betcher—1½ inch meter to serve five acres at corner Bradley and Magnolia. Reason for request: stand-by for 18,000 chickens. (Boy, them chickens drink a lot of water, hey?)

D. L. Robinson—1½ inch meter to serve five acres in Arb. 2, Lot 15, Blk. 13 of S Tract, Rho El Cajon.

Standard Oil Co. of Calif.—1 inch meter to serve storage plant at 297 Marshall, El Cajon. (We hope these big meter guys won't use all the water before some gets over here in Lemon Grove).

5. Expense claims: Dal Rausch, $65.38 for expenses to Western Region NACE Conference; Mr. Koppel, $2.00 for trip to Los Angeles to obtain wire.

6. Board to consider statement from Carlyle Reed for expenses:

Secretarial work—typing fact sheets and stencils—$15.00.

Mileage—280 miles—$28.00.

Aerial reprints (Jack Stevens) $4.83.

2 copy neg., 6 8x10 reprints (Skinner)—$9.50.

Magnesium Benday engraving (maps) Carroll's—$18.60.

Total—$75.59.

7. Segregations, as recommended by assessor-collector, to be approved.

8. Letter from Richard P. Hicks protesting district's business methods.

9. Board to consider request of Paul B. Hunter, for cancellation of penalty of 50c on water account No. 603-10450—paid under protest.

10. Board to consider request of James Hancock for permission to pay his connection fee charges of $213.75, over a period of time with 6% interest. Will sign note.

11. Mr. Shelton to discuss proposed relocation of pipeline along Lemon Grove Freeway.

12. Funds in amount of $2,000 to be encumbered for changeover of 13 radio units to new vehicles. Amount budgeted was $1200.

13. Mr. Shelton to review progress to date regarding Eucalyptus Yard annexation and request authorization to prepare final engineering plan for sewer construction. (Annexation first reading was Nov. 22—second reading scheduled for Nov. 29. Final ordinance to become effective 30 days later and then submitted to secretary of state. Proceedings will be completed by early January.)

14. Letter from James M. Montgomery, re final report on treatment plant.

15. Board to consider authorization of the following to attend "Corrosion" meeting in Chula Vista on Nov. 30: Shelton, Wilkas, Ehrhardt, Flor, Raasch Watters, Dell, Miller, Grosse, Friedgen, and Keith.

16. Postmaster Lehew has asked permission to store material in one of the district's buildings on Nebo street, from Dec. 10 to approx. January 1.

GOD SEEN AS PRESERVER IN SUNDAY SERMON

Biblical assurance of God's guidance and protection is replete in the Lesson-Sermon on "God the Preserver of Man" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Luke's Gospel relates that "Simon's wife's mother was taken with a greater fever," and Jesus "stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them" (4: 38, 39).

CHRISTMAS PARTY SET FOR ST. PHILIP'S

Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's will have a Christmas party on December 15 at 3 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Myra Sonka's dancing girls will entertain. Tea will be served, and all women of the church are cordially invited.

Next Sunday there will be a missionary rally at St. Paul's, San Diego, at 8 p.m. when Bishop Timothy Nakamura of northern Japan, Rev. Edward G. Longid, a member of the Ingorot tribe of the Philippines, and a delegate to the recent convention in Hawaii, and Mrs. Masatoshi Matsushita, daughter of the late Bishop Motoda and wife of the new president of St. Paul's University in Tokyo, will be the speakers.

The Altar Guild will meet at the Church Thursday at 10 a.m.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS TO HEAR DR. CROUCH

The League of Women Voters of San Diego will hold a luncheon meeting on Saturday at the Lafayette Hotel with Dr. Winston Crouch, professor of political science at UCLA, as guest speaker. Since all units of the league are currently winding up their studies of the administration of San Diego county government, Dr. Crouch's talk on county government in California, a subject on which he is an outstanding specialist, will be of timely interest.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and anyone interested in the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley areas is urged to contact either Mrs. Harold Walba, HO 9-1809 or Mrs. E. A. Block, HO 6-2428.

Parking space is that area that disappears while you are making a U-turn.

!THE SHOW'S THE THING!

The Ace Drive-in Theatre, Broadway and Imperial, in the heart of Lemon Grove, has many business mottos, with one of them being the old Southern expression "We aim to please."

Under the capable management of Joe Shure, with years of theatre experience, the Ace Drive-in is one of the newest, well-located cinemas in San Diego, complete with a large screen, ample parking facilities, the best in motion picture entertainment and car-heaters to boot.

A brief word about the heaters on the car speaker would be that they can only be used in your car in the show, they are useless at home. Also the management would appreciate it if you would turn off the heater before making way to the exit.

The two features for the rest of this week are "Trial" starring Glenn Ford and Dorothy McGuire and "Wichita" with Joel McCrea, in CinemaScope and color. Both are better-than-average films, with "Trial" delving into the controversial subject of juvenile delinquency and "Wichita" as you can guess, is a horse opera.

The phone number for Ace is HOpkins 9-5328, the show opens at 6:15, starts at 7 p.m., has two entrances (north and south side of the show), brand new snack bar and "we're off and driving to the Ace Drive-in."—B. T.

With all the new annihilating weapons, what will they think of last?

PICTURE TALK

By BOB VAUGHT

You're probably working on your Christmas shopping list now — just as I am. It's really a problem to come up with a list of "wanted" gifts and still stay within the family budget. We'd like to have you stop in and browse around our store for ideas. You'll be surprised how many names you can take care of right here. Most everyone is interested in picture-taking, and the most logical gift is a new Kodak or Brownie camera. Whether it's a "first" camera for a beginner or a more advanced model, we have a wide selection from which to choose. There are scores of other gift suggestions all the way from a roll of film or sleeve of flash bulbs to a movie projector.

Bring your shopping list in now (we're open until 9 every day until Christmas) and let us help you select some gifts that will really be appreciated and used.

Dazzling Dwarf Dahlias Do Well In Grove

Dahlias, as a flower grown from a tuber, have been used in the home garden for many years. The seedling variety, obtainable in any nursery as a bedding plant, has most of the advantages of the tuberous varieties, except size.

The dwarf variety seldom exceeds a height of two feet, with blooms of approximately three inches in diameter. Because of their lower growing habits, they make a fine frontal plant for the taller growing and large blossom exhibition plants.

Many interesting garden plots can be planted, using mass effects of this long blooming plant. The color range is varied, being of salmon, apricot, orange, scarlet, crimson, lavender, yellow and purple, plus some bi-color and striped blooms. Today's varieties are bright in color and the blooms, unlike those of the past, are practically all double.

The Dwarf Dahlia with its two foot height and colorful blooms, which are at least one-and one half feet from the ground, will be set off to its advantage if Phlox or Verbena are planted as an eye-catcher in the foreground, with Ageratum or Allysum as a border.

For a less formal effect, try planting these plants among the lower growing perennials so that the Dahlia blooms appear along with your Carnation, Gaillardia, and other one and one half to two foot tall plants.

Dahlias are very sturdy and require only a minimum of garden care. In most garden uses, the plants should be spaced from eight to twelve inches apart.

Do not pass up the flower arrangement opportunities offered by the long stemmed blooms of this plant. With from one to three dozen plants in a garden, obtained in mixed colors, blooms can be picked to match any color scheme desired.

New Law On Auto Brake Fluid

There's a new law to become effective January 1 which is designed to help lessen auto accidents resulting from faulty hydraulic systems.

The law, known as the Brake Fluid Law, makes it unlawful for any dealer to expose for sale, or sell, any brake fluid other than heavy duty type.

In addition to spelling out minimum specifications, the newly enacted law provides for registration of trade names, annual pre-sale permits to sell, and rules applicable to labeling of the product.

HOSPITALS NEED MUSIC THERAPISTS

Music therapists are needed by the California Department of Mental Hygiene to fill positions in state mental hospitals.

Examinations will be held as near the residences of applicants as possible.

College graduates with specialization in music therapy or music majors with a year of experience with mental patients are wanted.

The beginning monthly salary is $341, and increases annually thereafter to a maximum of $415.

Detailed information and official application forms may be obtained from the state employment office on Columbia Street.

STATE HAS JOB OPPORTUNITIES FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS

A number of California state government positions will be open to college seniors upon graduation, the state personnel board announced. The board said students interested in any of the following appointments should get their applications in promptly:

Investigator Trainee, Group Supervisor, Food and Drug Inspection Trainee, Junior Aquatic Biologist, Entomologist I, Junior Vector Control Specialist and Forestry Trainee.

Starting salaries in these jobs range from $310 to $341 a month. The personnel board points out that all are career opportunities, intended to start promising young college graduates toward top state executive positions.

The regular campus vocational advisers have descriptive literature on the state service and official application forms.

MILK INVESTIGATORS WANTED BY STATE

A state civil service examination for milk investigators will be conducted, the state personnel board announced.

Two years of milk marketing experience requiring a knowledge of accounting methods and practices in the milk industry is necessary. College graduation with specialization in the dairy industry may be submitted for experience.

These investigators arrange the licensing and bonding of milk, cream and dairy products distributors, and make investigations of marketing provisions violations.

The position pays $358 to $436 monthly.

Applicants should contact department of employment office on Columbia Street in San Diego.

LECTURER SPEAKS ON DIVINE LAW

"Christian Science: The Way of Obedience to Divine Law" will be the subject of a lecture to be radiocast over Station KFWB (980 kc), Thursday evening, December 15, at 8 o'clock, from Ninth Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles. The lecturer, James Harry McReynolds, C.S.B., of Dallas, Texas, is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

JOBS AVAILABLE AT NORTH ISLAND

Civil service examinations for the positions of aircraft plaster patternmaker, aircraft template and forming block maker, and phototransferer, are now being held by the board of examiners, Broadway Pier, San Diego, it was announced today by Eleventh Naval District headquarters.

Vacancies in those positions exist at the U. S. Naval Air Station, San Diego, and will be filled from these examinations.

Salaries range from $2.13 to $2.31 per hour for aircraft plaster patternmaker and aircraft template and forming block maker, and from $2.24 to $2.42 per hour for phototransferer.

Applications may be obtained and filed at the board of examiners office, Broadway Pier, San Diego.

In February, 1947, during flight operations of Operation HIGH-JUMP, U. S. Navy flight crews discovered warm lakes in the Antarctica in an area where the ice is known to be hundreds of feet deep.

A solution to end accidents: Lock up the good drivers and let the careless drivers fight it out.

LAW IN ACTION

ARE YOU A BAILOR?

You may make a dozen contracts daily — in such simple things as hanging up your hat or parking your car. Modern life could not go on without contracts to set our your rights and duties.

Do you know, for example, whether you have a "bailment" contract—for somebody to watch your hat or car, or whether you yourself are responsible in case of loss or damage?

1. In a restaurant the sign read: "Not responsible for articles lost or stolen."

John glanced at the sign, hung up his own and his wife's coat on the rack. They went into the dining room.

"After lunch, they found the wife's coat gone!

"Sorry sir," said the manager, "the rack is for your convenience, but as the sign says, you are responsible; we just can't watch everybody's coat."

Well, sign or no sign, John could not collect. When you put a garment on a restaurant rack, you have to guard it yourself. The restaurant has no responsibility.

But it's different, for example, when you hand the coat to a hat-check girl. Then the management takes control of your goods and is responsible.

2. You leave your car in a parking lot. You expect to get it back the way you left it. But when you come back your car may be gone! Who pays for it? That depends. If you turned your keys over, you contracted to have your car watched and may collect. If you didn't, you have merely rented the space and most likely cannot hold the parking people responsible.

Read all tickets for parking or checking. They are contracts and should say who's responsible and for how much.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to get under our laws.

Chamber of Commerce, however.
—The Editor

Dear Editor:

I was interested in the letter sent you by Mrs. Morse last week in which she requested clarification of "Take Our Children off the Waiting List." I am amazed that as great a contributor as I'm sure Mrs. Morse is, and you too, would not know that Scouting is one of the Red Feather youth agencies referred to in the campaigns each year.

So that you might better understand why the Scouts need financial aid, here are some figures. Last year 59% of the administrative cost of the Scouting program was obtained from the Community Chest. There are 16 salaried professionals at the present time working out of the Scout offices adjoining Balboa Park. These professional workers put in 40 hours a week, plus additional hours evenings and weekends training the 6,000 adult leaders in the San Diego Boy Scout Council. All of the 6,000 adults, it must be remembered, are volunteers. (I am familiar only with the Boy Scout program, which includes Cubbing. I know nothing of the Girl Scout administration, but would imagine it is about the same story.) There are now more than 18,000 boys benefiting from the time and efforts of these adults. Many more boys are waiting to become Scouts. More volunteer leaders are needed—and they must be trained. It is understandable, I'm sure, that there is a tremendous amount of paper work and clerical full-time help needed.

Local Cub Packs and Scout troops are conducted in much the same manner as they have always been. Each unit must have a sponsoring organization. Troops 168 and 369 are under the direction of the Catholic Church, while the Men's Fellowship of the Congregational Church sponsors Troop 303. Lemon Grove boasts of three Cub Packs. Pack 318 meets under the guidance of the Congregational Church, Pack 368 is a pet project of the local Lions Club, and Pack 380 is sponsored by the PTA. Funds are either donated or obtained from various types of drives by the boys.

Adults interested in Scouts, parents wanting the best for their boys, are still doing what they have always done. Along with everything else in this age in which we live, we are finding it difficult to meet the increasing demand for adequate leadership and facilities in Scouting.

Sincerely,
Ray Heinerman
Scoutmaster,
Troop 309

Dear Mr. Heinerman:

I am amazed that you think I do not know what United Success Drive money goes for. I think you are bending my reply to the scope of your interest. As a newsman, I view the wider, complete picture. In that, more than Scouting is involved.

Your letter was too long to use in entirety. I attempted to not change the meaning in editing it.

For other thoughts on United Success Drive thinking, see another part of "letter to the editor."

—The Editor.

Dear Editor:

All of us in United Success headquarters—division leaders, loan executives, staff and a good many thousand volunteers—are well aware of the debt of gratitude we and the community as a whole owe you.

Your cooperation in keeping the public informed of the progress of the United Success Drive, how the money was to be spent and what was as stake in the continued well being of this area has been tremendous.

You and your newspapers have had no small hand in the success of this campaign and the improvement of Red Feather services it has made possible. Your stand in the public interest has been a tribute to the finest traditions of the journalistic profession.

Sincerely yours,
John W. Quimby,
Chairman
1955 United Success
Drive.

Dear John:

Thanks for the bouquet. It sounds good but we had no success in this area. If we hit 30% of our goal we'll consider ourselves fortunate. Next year we hope to be better organized and away we'll go.

—The Editor

Dear Editor:

May I get into the argument concerning aid to needy children. In the discussion much talk was given regarding the status of the mother. I believe we should not lose the objective "Care for dependent children." We must also keep in mind that a very ugly faced woman, to the child, she is the most beautiful woman in the world. So, also, a mother, with loose morals, may be the paragon of virtue to her son, and as long as she keeps her child on the straight and narrow, her own virtues as far as the outsider is concerned should be her own business.

Let me quote:

"There is so much good in the worst of us
And so much bad in the best of us,
That it ill behooves any of us
To criticize the rest of us."

I do hope though that out of the discussion there will come a change in the law, and that change is that the mother's income from the welfare department will not be lessend if the child on his own goes out and earns a pittance, even if he earns much money. What we are trying to do is to help the needy to become self supporting, or at least support them until they can support themselves. Even if a boy or girl earns say $25.00 a month on a paper route or elsewhere that doesn't indicate the mother's burden has been lessened that amount for the increase in actual necessities such as additional food, clothing, transportation, etc. has taken most of the $25.00. None of us works without incentive, and often the only incentive is money. (Is that bad?) If we force the mother to declare the pittance the child earns, what incentive is there for the mother to encourage her child to work, and without doing some work how is the child going to be able to prepare for taking his part as a citizen of his country? Let's think less of how much we pay, but of how much we get. Let's think of the child.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Aloysius H. Seubert

Dear Al:

You got me wrong, ole boy! I don't criticise anybody's mother for having loose morals. All I said, and I say it again, that if they use my tax money to support a prostitute, they are making me, against my will, a contributor to a house to which I do not want to contribute.

Our district attorney says the law does not withhold aid on a moral ground . . . only in so much as it might tend to indicate income.

On the basis of an unbiased survey, it has been shown that ladies of this ilk do not keep books.

S.D. Grand Jury this week claimed that 70% of those receiving aid were actually ineligible and were receiving aid fraudulently.

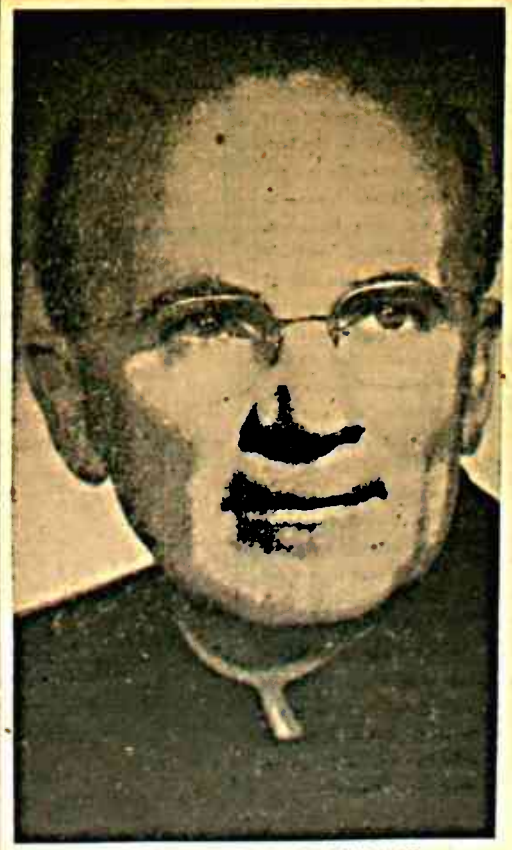
Why I Think You Should Go To Church This Sunday



RIGHT REVEREND JOHN W. McDONAGH
PASTOR, ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS CHURCH

The purpose of our existence here on earth, is to know, love and serve God and by so doing, obtain our eternal reward, the happiness of Heaven. Attendance at Church (for us Catholics, this means assistance at Holy Mass) is an essential part of our Service of God.

Therefore the reasons we should go to Church (to assist at Holy Mass) are plain. The person who does not go to Church or misses Mass cuts himself off from the very things that go to keeping faithful and true to his God. Everything in and around the Church reminds him of what he is and what he ought to be. Jesus Christ really and truly comes down upon the Altar during the Mass, and for a person who has even a spark of faith, this nearness of God is never lost upon his soul, but helps him to be better and to live a better life. The atmosphere and our surroundings in Church remind of all that is holiest and best from our childhood and youth and gives us the incentive to live up to the standards we set for ourselves. Here we are reminded that when we were baptized, our Godparents in our name renounced the Devil with all his works and pomps.

We may since have gone back on those promises, but here in Church we are reminded that our Redeemer is ever present to grant the forgiveness which He obtained for us by His death on the Cross. We are reminded of the first day we received Our Lord in Holy Communion, of the purity and innocence that was ours at that time. We meet people who are making steady progress on the way to Heaven, but who have had no better opportunities than we ourselves have. We are rightly made to feel that we have wasted much of the valuable time that God has given us, but at the same time we get the necessary hope and encouragement to make a fresh start. All these reminders and helps come from our close association with God in the Holy Mass, and we are stimulated to greater fidelity to God and our religion during the week that lies ahead.

Therefore a person who goes to his Church or assists at Holy Mass on Sunday, and every Sunday, is doing nothing extraordinary. He is merely doing his plain and simple duty to God. After all there are one hundred and sixty-eight hours in the week, and all that God asks is one hour. What an important hour that is, because during it we fulfill our basic and necessary duties towards our Maker: by our presence in Church and offering of the Holy Mass we give Him fitting worship, which as His creatures we owe Him, we offer Him suitable thanks for all He has done for us, we make reparation for the many sins we have committed against Him, and finally realizing how much we depend on His future goodness and mercy we offer Him petition.

All these being true, it is hard to see why some should stay away from Church or miss Mass on Sundays. It was not always so, from the history of the early Church we learn that our Christian Forefathers dug tunnels in the ground, called catacombs, where they assisted at Holy Mass in peril of their lives. The same fidelity and love for God even when their lives were at stake, was shown in the past by the people in Ireland, Mexico, Holland and Belgium, and is being shown even today, in the countries behind the Iron Curtain.

Our Forefathers were willing to risk their lives to serve God. How can we, with nothing but our own indifference to conquer, refuse to do the same? Look at the figure of Our Savior dying on the Cross, with his hands and feet pierced with nails. Remember that this is what His love for you cost Him. If a return of love for Him only costs you only one hour a week, how can you still refuse to give it?

DIRECT DISTANCE DIALING 'D' DAY DUE SOON

Installation of direct distance dialing equipment that will enable local telephone users to dial their own long distance calls to many points in the country after next April 15 is under way.

Additional equipment, including trunking circuits to the recently completed DDD central office in San Diego, will be installed.

Local residents will be able to dial most Southern California points, plus 18 other major cities in the country. These are Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Milwaukee, Oakland, Sacramento, San Francisco, Portland, Newark, New York, Oklahoma City, Phoenix, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, and Washington, D. C.

In placing a call it will be necessary first to dial the distance directing code of 112, which will direct the call into the DDD equipment.

Calls to San Diego, Imperial, Riverside and Orange Counties will be dialed direct—after dialing the 112 code—just as local calls are dialed.

Calls to any of 22,000,000 telephones in other connected points will be completed after first dialing 112, then the area code. Folders with these codes will be mailed shortly before the cutover.

For example, to reach PLaza 5-0999 in New York City, first dial 112, then 212 (area code for New York City) then PL 5-0999.

DDD is fully automatic except for the identification of the telephone number the calling party is using. The equipment automatically brings in an operator to obtain the calling number.

The "O" operator will assist customers on their DDD calls. Only station-to-station calls will be dialed directly. Person-to-person, collect calls, and others from coin telephones still will go thru the operator.

HELIX LOSES, WINS WEEKEND TILTS

Carrying a 1-1 seasonal record with them, the Helix High School Highlanders varsity basketball quintet meets two strong teams this weekend.

On Friday the Highlanders will tangle with Coronado of the Avocado League. Last year the Islanders were the second place team in the SCIF playoffs. Then on Saturday night our boys will use the southern hospitality for us home-towners as they "aim to please" us by beating Pt. Loma of the City League. Both games will be held in the Pt. Loma gym. The Friday tilt starts at 7 p.m. with the Saturday fracas scheduled for 8:30.

Artist Gilbert, San Diego High center who was recently discovered in gym class, paced the Cavemen with 20 points past the Highlanders last Friday night in the Grossmont gym, 67-37. Gail Barsotti, Helix guard, was our highest scorer with 17 digits, followed by rapidly improving Ronnie Mulder (c) with 16. The halftime score had S. D. 27, Helix 33.

Since most of our first-string basketeers were football teammates they've only been out for the hoop sport since a few days ago, so they were allowed to have a minute, but no more. And of course they followed true to form as they came back fast Saturday night to trip the Hockerville Cardinals from Hoover by the close score of 47-46.—Bob Turnbull.

'Septic-Tanklegger' Operating in County Says Health Director

Don't do business with a septic-tanklegger, warned J. B. Askew, county director of public health.

He said that many unlicensed septic tank and cesspool cleaning trucks are operating in the county. "These operators," he said, "are operating illegally and often endanger the public health by dumping raw sewage into streams, vacant lots and along the highways."

Each year, according to Dr. Askew, these itinerant septic tank cleaners come to San Diego County. As they do not intend to establish residence or a permanent business in the county, they fail to comply with department of public health regulations and often overcharge for their service. The department, he said, has received reports of unlicensed operators charging as much as $130 for cleaning a septic tank. Resident, licensed operators charge an average of $30 for this service, he pointed out.

All legitimate septic tank cleaners in the county carry with them a valid permit and work card issued by the department, Dr. Askew said.

To eliminate this health hazard and to protect themselves against being overcharged for service, Dr. Askew urged the public to require all operators to show their permit and work card.

Mothers who scold little boys for carrying crazy things in their pockets should look in their handbags.

1911 Act Petitions on Sewers Turned in to Supervisors

Twelve petitions, with some 600 signatures, have been presented to the San Diego County Board of Supervisors asking to form an improvement district under the 1911 Act to construct lateral sewer lines in Spring Valley. The petitions are the outgrowth of the recent sewer bond election for $750,000 for a disposal plant and trunk lines.

The petitions were from the Casa de Oro, American Homes and St. John of the Cross districts. Other petitions are being circulated, according to Gilbert Ray, chairman of the Citizens for Sewers.

A resolution was adopted by the county board of supervisors at last Tuesday's meeting to appoint an engineer for the project. Jean Vincenz, director of public works, has been appointed, according to a report from the supervisors' office.

Joe Rushing, chief of the civil engineering department of county public works, said the determination of the boundaries of the improvement district will take about four months. Construction will probably start about four to six months after the beginning of work on the plant, sewage disposal plant and trunk lines.

Preparation of the final plans and specifications for the sewer plant and trunk lines will be completed in time to advertise bids in June, 1956, according to Rushing.

The work should be completed a year later, Rushing pointed out, and the improvement laterals soon after that.

DO NOT DRIVE WITH PARKING LIGHTS ON WARNS HIGHWAY PATROL

SACRAMENTO — The California Highway Patrol reports that many motorists are still using parking lights as driving lights.

"The law prohibits the use of parking lights as driving lights at times when headlights or foglights are required," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This law was necessary to correct an obviously dangerous practice.

"Parking lights when used as running or driving lights have a tendency to deceive other drivers by creating illusions of distance and speed of oncoming vehicles," Caldwell said.

"We urge every driver to develop the habit of lighting the headlights, not the parking lights, when first turning on car lights at dusk or whenever impaired visibility requires lights. This will help other drivers and pedestrians see your vehicle better and will provide more safety at times when our traffic accident rate is highest."

Racing Association To Help Tots

The San Diego Racing Association, of which there are several driver members in the Spring Valley area, will race at the San Diego Stadium Sunday, December 11 starting at 2:30 p.m.

Admisson to the races will be a toy, for the Toys for Tots campaign. Those who will race from Spring Valley are Chuck Duffy, Art Enz and Bobby Ash and from Jamacha Dick Stead and Dave Greenwell.

GOLDEN AVENUE PTA TO HEAR MRS. LESTINA

Tonight (Thursday) promises to be a very enjoyable one at the Golden Avenue PTA meeting. Mrs. Frank LesTina, a prominent speaker and tv personality in this area, is to be the guest speaker. She has entertained many of us in the past and her Christmas programs are delightful.

LEVIS AND LACES CHRISTMAS PARTY TO AID NEEDY

Wintertime was the setting for the regular Levis and Laces party held on Saturday night at the Woman's Clubhouse. Fifteen squares of dancers enjoyed a full evening of dancing to the calling of Clarence Montgomery, and a number of guest callers from the Heartland area.

The hall was attractively decorated with evergreen boughs, and snow scenes by Vance and Lorraine Jaquith and their committee, and at the close of the evening hot dogs and coffee were served to all present. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keller of the Square Wheeler Club, who are the Heartland couple of the month, honored us with a visit, and Bill gave us one of his good "calls."

Recently a number of Levis and Laces members were guests of the Alpine Allamander Club at Alpine, and on Wednesday night, November 30, Levis and Laces played hosts to the Dip 'n Diver Square Dance Club of National City.

There will be a Christmas party and dance for members only on December 17 at the clubhouse, with a turkey dinner preceding the danced. Plans for the club's needy family basket are going ahead as scheduled, with canned goods being donated by the membership.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE CHOSEN AT TRINITY

LOCAL WOMEN UNDERGOING TEACHER TRAINING

Two Lemon Grove women are gaining practical teaching experience in San Diego high schools while majoring in education at San Diego State College.

JoAnne Romine, 6751 San Miguel Ave., is teaching homemaking to sophomores and juniors at Grossmont High School. Irene Helen Hamelehle, 3220 Vista Ave., has taken over the teaching of foods to a ninth grade class at Horace Mann Junior High School.

Both are seniors and members of the Home Economic Club at State. They are now in the final step in the training program for a classroom career.

As juniors, the students spend one or two hours a day for six weeks working with public school teachers and observing. They are also required to work with young people in youth groups and submit written observations. In the seven years this phase of the program has existed students have worked with over 100 community agencies.

The parents of all freshman students at Helix High are invited to participate in a forum discussion on Let's All Plan Together—the next three years at Helix—in the Helix High Cafetorium Thursday, December 8, at 7:30 p.m. according to Albert H. Wallace, president of the Parent Teacher Association.

This meeting is not to be confused with the regular annual meeting of the Helix faculty with the parents of junior high school graduates who will enter high school next September.

The forum will give parents a chance to question faculty and student representatives on the curricular and co-curricular activities.

CHAPLAIN BAKKER TO ATTEND VLM-PTA MEETING

The traditional Christmas gift of the school children to their parents will be presented tonight, December 8, at the December meeting of the Vista La Mesa Parent-Teacher Association, to be held in the school cafetorium at 7:45 p.m.

STATE ANNOUNCES EIGHT CAREER OPENINGS FOR CLASS OF '56

Eight career opportunities for college graduates were among the examinations announced by the California State Personnel Board today. They are the first state government jobs to be opened to application by the class of '56.

Seniors may take the examinations, but must present evidence of graduation before they are appointed.

Four examinations requiring college graduation with a specialized science major are for Junior Aquatic Biologist, with a starting salary of $325; Entomologist I and Forestry Trainee at $310; and Junior Vector Control Specialist at $341. Food and Drug Inspection Trainee, starting at $310, requires graduation with a minor in chemical or biological sciences.

Group supervisors, both men and women, are needed by the Youth Authority and state correctional institutions for training and supervising youth in work assignments and recreational activities. The position starts at $325, and requires completion of two years of any college major, or two years of employee supervision or youth guidance, supervision or teaching.

Recent college graduates who specialized in law enforcement may qualify for the position of Investigator Trainee which pays $325-$358 a month.

For all but the position of Investigator Trainee, experience may be substituted for education on a year-for-year basis.

Other examinations are for Supervising Psychiatric Social Worker I and II, paying $458-$556 and $505-$613 respectively. Electroencephalographic Technician, $295-$358; Assistant Vector Control Specialist, $436-$530, and Deputy State Fire Marshal II, $415-$505, and Drivers' License Examiner, paying $341-$415.

Throwin' The Bull

By BOB TURNBULL

It's a Joke, Son! . . . Small boy: What is college bred, pop? Pop (with a son in college): They make college bread, my boy, from the flour of youth and the dough of old age.

—o—

Personals . . . I would like to make you a part of "Throwin' the Bull" so please feel free to drop me a card or letter with your brief personal comments that you would like printed in this portion of "the Bull." Do it today if you have a friend that you know reads this paper.

"Five Musts" . . . The following are five musts if you really are sincere in becoming a model.

You must always be well groomed. You must dress smartly, appropriately and completely. You must always have a great amount of assurance, particularly when applying for a job. You must smile with a genuine feeling of friendliness and you must be cooperative and acquire the art of working smoothly with people.

—o—

What's Happening? . . . Listen to Don Howard's show on the "new" KCBQ-1170 on your dial, along with other members of the "Hit Paraders." . . . This Wednesday, Lynn Taylor's "Campus Corner" tv show featured students from all over San Diego. This television show for high school and college students can be seen over Channel 10 (KFSD-TV) every Wednesday from about 4:20 to 5 p.m. . . . Thursday, December 8 at 6:30 p.m. is the San Diego Junior College Sports Banquet at the south campus cafe. . . . Friday, December 9 is the "December Dream" dance presented by the Chula Vista High School Girls' League. Joe Fox' band will provide the music at the C. V. recreational center. . . . Arena from December 14-22 and the Old Globe Theatre is currenly starring Lynn Taylor in Sabrina Fair.

—o—

Dis 'n Dat . . . Louis Wagner Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Wagner, 2061 Dayton Drive, is currently "doing time" at the Parks Air Force Base, Calif. . . . Peggie Howerton (ex-lassie) recently became the bride of Paul Henneberg in the Little Chapel of the Roses. . . . The First Congregational Church of Lemon Grove has a very active Junior and Senior High PF (Pilgrim Fellowship). Last Sunday night the seniors traveled to Paradise Hills for a joint while the juniors wrapped and packed articles gathered in the Halloween trick or treat collection to send to a boys' and girls' settlement house in the hills of Kentucky. Anybody interested in a college PF? . . . Hats Off Dept. to the Lemon Grove Business Women's League for again throwing some timbers together for another pretty nativity scene for the coming holiday season, to be displayed on our plaza. . . . Attention Helix: Watch out for a tough basketball squad from both Grossmont and El Cajon, and Sweetwater and Chula Vista cannot be taken too lightly, either.

—o—

Tickling the Twine . . . season is here once more. If height is any indication of victory, then Helix should be a champion in a college league. Look at the prospects for this year's first string varsity: two centers at 6 feet 6 inches and 6 feet 5 inches; forwards, 6 feet 4 inches, 6 feet 5 inches, 6 feet 3 inches, 6 feet 7 inches and 6 feet. Our "short" guards average out at 6 feet, 6 feet 4 inches, 5 feet 9 inches, 5 feet 9 inches and 5 feet 10 inches.

Money Doll to be given away By Business Women's League.

EDGEMOOR FARM HOSPITAL TO HAVE NEW NAME

Edgemoor Farm Hospital will be known as Edgemoor Farm Geriatrics Hospital, if the latter name is approved by the board of supervisors, which has the matter under advisement.

The recommendation was made by the county hospital committee in an effort to bring the hospital's name in line with its present functions. Geriatrics is the study of the problems of the aged.—D. H.

FATHER, SON BUY OUT LUMBER FIRM

Henry "Hank" Lange and his son Jack this week became sole owners of the Lemon Grove Lumber Company, 7750 North St., when they announced they had bought out their partner, Arthur Uecker, a Spring Valley building contractor.

The elder Lange, a veteran of 31 years in the lumber business, all in San Diego, joined the firm in 1952. Earlier this year he and Uecker bought out the firm which was comprised of Stephen Westover, Ruth Schulte and Ernie Sunbery. Uecker's interests keep him away from the firm a great part of the time and this week he relinquished his interest to the Langes. Lange was former manager of the National Lumber Co., in Chula Vista.

Jack Lange, also associate with the National Lumber Co. until he joined the Lemon Grove firm this year, is a former professional baseball player. He played shortstop for three years for Albany in the Eastern League.

Hank Lange said that at the time they purchased the rest of the firm, they also acquired a 75 foot lot from Sadie Campbell on North St. across from the lumber yard. This is being blacktopped and is to be used for customer parking, the Langes said.

About $100,000.00 was involved in the deal, the Langes said.

'Platter Parade'

By Bob Turnbull
HO 9-3448

Ratner Recommends . . . the following single waxing and album: "The Tender Trap" by Frankie Sinatra and "Crazy Hamp" featuring Lionel Hampton.

Record Round-Up . . . Here are this week's five pop tunes as compiled by Ratner Electric, 8th and Broadway in downtown San Diego:

"Sixteen Tons" by Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" by the Four Aces, "I Hear You Knockin'" by Gale Storm, "Cry Me a River" by Julie Lenton and "Bonnie Lassie" by the brothers called Ames.

Leading classic: "Rachmaninoff Plays the Four Concertos" on the Victor label. Latest in jazz: "Jazz: Red, Hot and Cool" by Dave Brubeck Quartet featuring Paul Desmond (Columbia).

Interview . . . Can you guess the name of today's "Platter Parade" special guest interview? He was born in Texas and is now 25 years young. He arrived in L. A. without a dime, tried one-nighters which proved worthless and discouraging. He heard a couple of brothers who wanted to start a record company, got together with them and because of limited finances recorded the first record in the front room of their home. That one was his famous Houston's Hot House. Hit after hit followed, with our guest sometimes on tenor sax. Everything with him is "crazy," including his fabulous career. His current record is "All Nite Long." Give up? Surely by now you should have guessed Joe Houston!!

Much Wire Needed In Telephone Workings

A sign "men at work over an open manhole at the corner of the irrigation district's office in La Mesa caught the eye of this reporter Tuesday, and like most curious kids we peeked.

A cemented room underground was occupied by two men, both busily pairing wires and slipping a white tube over the ends of each pair.

Our inquiry revealed that 2121 pairs of wires were being readied for the nearest substation, and the pairs had to be right. On top of the ground a man was beating a cylinder of thick lead six inches in diameter and 30 inches long, on the bottom open end, to bring the cylinder opening down to 3¼ inches. He used a piece of lignum-vitae, which was heavy as iron, for a mallet, and gradually bent the lead down to size required. The wires will make a cable that will carry the conversations to the station and wait for dialing fingers.

The man with the mallet remarked "Nothing new has been discovered in telephony principles since Alexander Graham Bell, but new materials are being used. The 'transistor,' about the size of a lead pencil eraser, is the biggest thing that has happened. Without it, the space required for the old switch boards in La Mesa would cover a large city block." Then he gave the cylinder another lick with the mallet. Boy, I'd like to get one of them there transistors for my typewriter.—D. H.

NEW TRAFFIC SIGNS GO UP IN COUNTY

Although California motorists will soon be seeing new "YIELD" signs at some intersections, none will be set in Lemon Grove, according to Ed Singer, district county road supervisor.

Singer said the signs will be used primarily in the backcountry where traffic is sparse.

Several eastern states already are using the signs. Installation is now permitted in California under a new law which became effective September 7, 1955. The "Yield" signs will be triangle shaped, with black letters on a yellow background.

"Yield" signs permit drivers to cross an intersection at 15 miles per hour or less if no vehicle is approaching on the cross street. If traffic on the cross street is approaching close enough to constitute an immediate hazard, the driver must yield the right-of-way or stop if necessary.

Motorists are warned that a high percentage of accidents occur at intersections and extreme caution should be used at locations where "Yield" signs have been installed, B. R. Caldwell, commissioner of the state highway patrol explained.

Replica of Christ's Birthplace

A replica of the Manger in Bethlehem, where Christ was born, has been built in the parking south of Broadway on Imperial Avenue.

Six figures offering gifts, and a silver star above make an interesting picture of the most famous barn in history. A lamb is lying in the straw scattered in front of the manger.—D. H.

FORMER NEWSMAN TO TALK ON CAMELLIAS

The San Diego Camellia Society December meeting will be held on Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the Floral Building in Balboa Park. A fine program has been arranged. E. Manchester Boddy will be the guest speaker of the evening. His subject: "My Experiences with Camellias."

Mr. Boddy is well qualified to entertain Camellia fans—having owned and developed the famous Descanso Gardens at La Canada. He also owned and financed the expedition that brought the new C. Reticulata Hybrids from Yunnan Province of China. M. Boddy is former owner and publisher of the Los Angeles Daily News.

Cold weather ahead

PREPARE NOW FOR THE WINTER MONTHS

by having not only your home heating system and appliances checked, but your automobile as well . . . You'll want also to have some painting and decorating done, and possibly refinish or upholster furniture in preparation for the holidays.

All these services can be performed for you best by businesses or individuals whose services are listed in this directory. Each is not only reliable, but in most instances their charges are more reasonable than elsewhere.
